

PEOPLE SAVING PLACES

2022 Preservation Awards

Awarded by the Eatonton Historic Preservation Commission

May is National Preservation Month.

Thank you to the Property Owners for helping preserve our local Historic District.

Why is Preservation important?

When you preserve an historic property, you are not just saving wood & brick – you are saving information about the lives of those who came before us. Historic buildings are visible, tangible remnants of a places rich cultural past and allow residents and visitors to experience an area's cultural history.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

Certificate of Appropriateness

ISSUED BY CITY OF EATONTON

The Ezell House (1886)

Keith Rowell and Shelagh Fagan, property owners

---

Excellence in Stewardship

The Gardner-Griffith House (1904)

Bob Carithers and Johnny Holt, property owners

---

Excellence in Rehabilitation

The Walton-Rossee House (1909)

Aaron and Jo Anne Raatz, property owners

---

Excellence in Rehabilitation

Rock Eagle Chapel (1953)

Matt Hammons and Georgia 4-H, property owners

---

Excellence in Restoration

Our historic character is part of what makes Eatonton so special.

Thank you to all who help make this possible.